

THE ARTIST

SILVASTONE is a self produced artist and songwriter with extensive and varied experience in the music industry.

Born in London to parents from Ghana and Sierra Leone, SILVASTONE combines his African heritage with European influences to create a unique afrofusion sound.

"I was just so blown away!"

SILVASTONE has a charismatic and energetic stage presence and has featured on the line ups of various festivals and shows such as SXSW Music Festival and Glastonbury Festival. SILVASTONE has put on many successful headline shows in London since the release of his first independently produced EP, "Transitions".

The Albums

SILVASTONE has DJ'd across the globe from Australia to USA and Kenya to Kent, and even syndicated an Afrobeats playlist mix on Emirates Airlines. As a DJ, he has been championing African music in front of thousands of people and has supported Emmanuel Jal and Blak Twang in their tours.

Closer to home, SILVASTONE is passionate about music being accessible to all and has brought opportunity to his local community in co-founding and being the resident host and DJ of the successful Afrobox at Boxpark Croydon.
