

THE PRODUCER

SILVASTONE is a talented, self-taught producer. The hardworking creative runs his own professional recording studio, White Hut Studios in his home town, Croydon.

Here, he has produced the works of Chaka Demus & Pliers, Mr Vegas, Mark Morrison, Rita Ora and Emmanuel Jal to name a few.

As an independent artist, SILVASTONE realised the importance of building his own studio and being able to create a hub for other artists like himself.

He decided not to wait his turn, but to "create his turn".

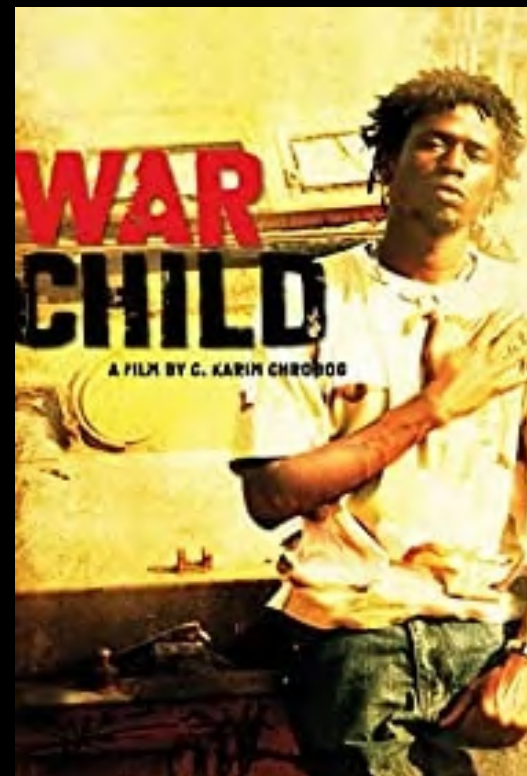

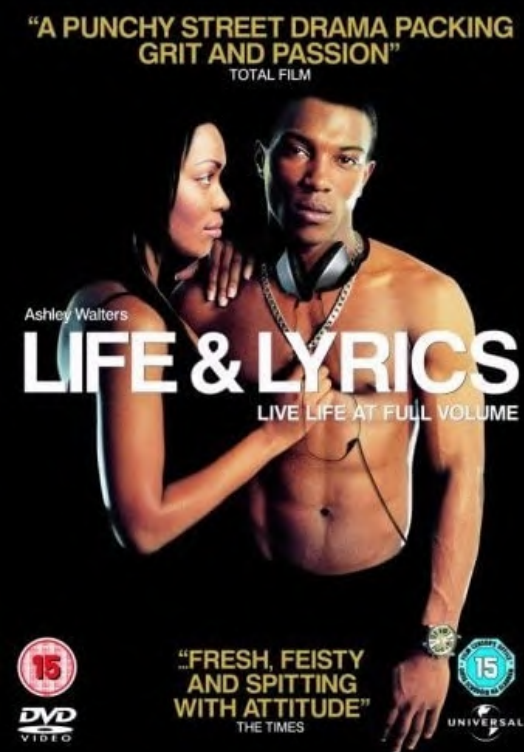

SILVASTONE'S first passion has taken him over the world making and composing music for artists across different genres from afrobeats and reggae to indie and soft pop.

He produced the lead theme music for productions such as 2017 US No1 Box Office movie (Tyler Perry's "Boo 2 – A Madea Halloween ") and the recent Netflix Original series, "The Chilling Adventures Of SABRINA".
